Americans with Disability Act (ADA) Update
Who Qualifies and What is Reasonable?

Thursday, October 21, 2010
9:00 a.m. – 12 noon

Twenty years ago, the Americans with Disability ACT (ADA) was signed into law, guaranteeing equal opportunity for people with disabilities in employment, public accommodation, commercial facilities, transportation, state and local government services, and telecommunications. Find out what the new ADA regulations are, and what they mean.

Please join us for this interactive training where attendees will receive updates on the "New" ADA Amendments Act, an overview of the "New" Employment Regulations and obtain informative guidelines that can be implemented and shared immediately. Specific topics covered:

- ADA Amendments Act, and the changes in definition of disability.
- What are the new ADA regulations and what do they mean?
- Receiving practical information on identifying simple accommodations that can be made to improve the employee's ability to perform his or her job successfully.
- Overview of the ADA, tax credits and deductions.
- Enhancing your capability to facilitate successful employment for both employee and the employer.
- A brief description of ADA's relationship to other laws.

Facilitator: Marian Vessels, Director, DBTC: Mid-Atlantic ADA Center
