"No One Is Unemployable"
Creative Solutions for Overcoming Barriers to Employment

Thursday, March 15, 2012
9:00 a.m. – 12 noon
Registration begins at 8:30 am

This challenging and inspiring address poses that "No One is Unemployable!" then backs it up with hopeful, innovative, practical ideas and approaches that are proven to work with even the toughest clients.

With more than 15 years experience developing front-line employment programs for people with significant barriers across the US and Australia, the author presents a proven process and six solution tools to overcome any barrier, plus a framework for consistently thinking like an employer, so you can identify everything that could get a candidate screened out, and also fresh job strategies to help even your toughest candidates land a job now!

Program leadership will also get ideas on how to better achieve the long-term programmatic goals they're striving for! Delivered with a front-line perspective that you can relate to, and a keen understanding of the big picture, it will inspire and equip you to return to your work more effective and more creative than ever.

Facilitator: Elisabeth H. Sanders-Park, Author of the L.A. Times top 10 Career Book of the Year "No One is Unemployable: Creative Solutions for Overcoming Barriers to Employment, and The Six Reasons You Aren't Getting Hired". Elisabeth has nearly 15 years of experience in the field of career development. She is an international trainer and speaker, and the President of Worknet Solutions. She has trained more than 10,000 practitioners, helped establish more than 150 programs, and impacted the lives of 1,000,000 job seekers across the U.S., Australia, New Zealand and the UK.
