Surfin' the Tsunami to a Federal Job!

Thursday, October 7, 2010

9:00 a.m. – 12:00 noon

The President signed an Executive Order for the federal government to hire more than 100,000 workers with disabilities in the next 5 years. However, the federal application process is often confusing and difficult for job seekers and workforce development professionals. Get an "insider's view" of the federal job search and application process, especially the special process for "Hiring People with Disabilities". Explore the features of www.usajobs.gov and strategies for finding and applying for federal government jobs. Learn how to read a federal vacancy announcement and take away a variety of resources that can be used immediately with job seekers.

Presenter: Karol Taylor, founder and owner of Taylor Your Career, an all purpose career management service. With more than 28 years of federal service combined with 17 years of career and academic advising brings a broad perspective and considerable expertise to the career management and federal hiring process.
