A Briefing on the Ticket-to-Work and Work Incentives Improvement Act

Wednesday, March 19, 2008
9:00 a.m. – 12 noon

Emily Malsch and Tom Gloss from CESSL, the Program Managers for Recruitment and Outreach for SSA's Ticket-to-Work program, will present the re-launch of the Ticket-to-Work program. SSA is expecting the final regulations governing the program to be published this spring. The proposed new regulations offer a terrific opportunity for interested service providers and rehabilitation professionals to start incorporating the Ticket-to-Work program into their business practices. With increased support, a better payment plan, and incentives for collaborating with VR and SSA, the new regulations has provided organizations in the Employment Network with more tools for placing their clients in jobs.

This presentation will go over the proposed new regulations and how your organization can become a part of the Employment Network. As well as, offering best practices from other organizations in the EN who have effectively utilized the Ticket-to-Work program to maximize job opportunities for their beneficiaries and help them achieve their employment goals.
